IX. Response to ELAC recommendations

Juan Romero, Categorical Programs Coordinator, reviewed ELAC recommendations from the previous meeting:

1. ELAC recommends that parents of English Learner (EL) students, or students nearing reclassification, be informed of the school's tutoring services through various forms of communication, such as phone calls or text messages.
2. ELAC recommends that teachers encourage students complete to i-Ready exercises daily at home to improve their skills in ELA and Math.

The SSC discussed the recommendations and had the following comments. Regarding the first recommendation, (1) the SSC would like to reevaluate this recommendation, as teachers and staff are already consistently communicating with students and families about the various tutoring services provided by the school. Given the many responsibilities teachers are currently managing, requiring additional calls for tutoring is not something the SSC would want to impose on an already exhausted staff. Regarding the second recommendation, the SSC agrees that this recommendation can be implemented. Teachers will encourage their students to complete i-Ready exercises daily at home to help improve their ELA and Math skills.

Chae Costley motioned to accept the second recommendation and reevaluate the first ELAC recommendation, seconded by Yessenia Marroquin. The motion passed unanimously, with 9 votes in favor, 0 opposed, and 0 abstentions.
